

All trademark names are property of their respective companies. Information contained in this publication has been obtained

Executive Summary

In 2016, Cisco Systems commissioned the Enterprise Strategy Group (ESG) to complete a research survey of 200 IT

In addition to asking about budgets, ESG also asked survey respondents to identify some of their strategic priorities for network security monitoring. This list includes (see Figure 7):

Providing more training to existing staff on network security monitoring. As part of this

