

Business Challenge

and the integration of building control systems, such as lighting, heating, and security. The architectural platform approach taken by Cisco will also enable the hotel to accelerate the launch of

