

Overview

Cisco® Secure Ops Solution supports cyber-security risk management and compliance for industrial automation environments. It is a combination of on-premise technology, processes, and managed services that helps companies implement and maintain

Cisco® Secure Ops Solution provides critical infrastructure security as-a-service, and customers who implement the solution have experienced:

- Less site down time, risk reduction
- Increased site productivity and lower operational costs
-