

---

NIC also needed to provision for guest access to its wireless network and integrate its existing directory server for authentication. Due to its vast user profile, the solution had to help ensure that the network could handle wireless security threats, on-wire attack, over-the-air attack, rogue AP, and denial-of-services attacks.

